

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to recommend Romain Giovanetti for the position of Front-End Engineer at your company. I have had the pleasure of working with Romain for the past five months at Canva, where he has consistently demonstrated his skills and abilities in this field.

Romain is a highly skilled and experienced Front-End Engineer with a strong track record of success. He has a deep understanding of front-end development principles and technologies, and he is able to apply this knowledge to solve complex problems. Romain is also a highly effective communicator and collaborator, and he is able to work effectively with both technical and non-technical teams.

In his time at Canva, Romain has made significant contributions to our development efforts. He has played a key role in the development of several key features, and he has also been instrumental in reducing technical debt. Romain is also a highly proactive engineer, and he is always looking for ways to improve our processes and codebase.

In addition to his technical skills, Romain is also a highly effective communicator and collaborator. He is able to clearly articulate his ideas, and he is always willing to help others. Romain is also a team player, and he is always willing to go the extra mile to help the team succeed.

I have no doubt that Romain would be an asset to your company. He is a talented engineer with a strong work ethic, and he is always willing to learn and grow. I highly recommend him for the position of Front-End Engineer.
